NOTE 1 : (i) Combined seniority of all eligible officers from all the feeder categories as defined shall be prepared and considered for appointment by promotion/ Recruitment by transfer to any category in the service rules in the manner prescribed until and unless otherwise specified in these rules against any category, except in Category 1 of Class II and Category 10, 11 and 12 of Class III.

ii) The words “feeder categories” aforesaid apply to the lower categories but not to the horizontal equivalent categories from which filling up of a particular category is proposed by transfer.

Explanation: Category 4 of Class II may be fills by transfer from the categories of 1 and 2 of class II. Under this provision the appointing authority may transfer, any one from the category 1 and 2 of Class II to the category 4 of class II in the interest of the Administration or public Interest, irrespective of seniority of the person working either in Category 1 or 2 of class II. Provided the /she satisfies the qualifications prescribed for Category 4 of Class II.

NOTE 2 : The Rule 3 provides for filling up of one category of a particular class by transfer from other categories of the same class which are equivalent in the scales of pay. This method of recruitment will result in shifting of vacancy in one category to some other category in the same class. Some times the feeder categories of two categories between which transfer occurs may be different, Some times the qualification prescribed for these two categories may also be different. Can should be taken while effecting such transfers that feeder categories ate not affected. The vacancy register shall be maintained category wise to reflect true vacancy position in any particular defined category.

Explanation : As per the Rule the posts of Category 2 of Class II may be filled by transfer from Category 1 of Class II. In this case the competent authority may transfer any one from the category 1 of class irrespective of seniority in the interest of administration of public interest provided he / she satisfies the qualification prescribed for Category 2 of Class II. By making such transfers the vacancy category 2 of Class II is shifted to Category 1 of Class II. In the case the feeder categories Category 1 and 2 of class II are almost same but the qualifications prescribed are different. For the vacancy category 2 of Class II persons working in feeder categories and having high second class in M.A./ M.Sc., are eligible for promotion. For the vacancy in Category 1 of Class II persons working in feeder categories and having a graduate degree and B.Ed. are eligible for promotion. In such a situation the vacancy shall be shown in the original category i.e. category 2 of Class II even if it is filled by transfer temporarily from Category 1 of Class II. Same type of method shall also be followed when the feeder categories are different to the two categories which are equivalent in scales of pay between whom " by transfer" provision is provided under method of recruitment.

NOTE 3 : Lecturers in the category 3 & 4 of Class III in UGC Scales shall not eligible for promotion to Category 1 of Class II. If any person in the Category 3 of Class III opts for promotion to Category 1 of Class II he shall not allowed UGC scales, from the date of joining in the category 1 of Class II. He shall be given State scales or pay applicable to the Category 1 of Class II.

NOTE 4 : Not less than 50% of the total number of vacancies arising or existing at any point of time in any category shall be filled by direct recruitment, where there is provision for direct recruitment i.e. put of every two vacancies that arise in any category. the first vacancy must be filled by direct recruitment only.

NOTE 5 : In case of the promotion of Gazetted Headmaster / Headmistress Grade -II in Govt. High Schools / Z.P. High Schools, who were promoted prior to the issue of these rules, for promotion to the posts of categories 1 and 2 of Class III, the seniority shall be decided with reference to their appointment in the posts of School Assistants and Language Pandits Grade I, because the posts of Headmasters in the Government Sector came into existence from 1982 only. As different feeder categories of Class III are made as feeder categories to Category - 1 of Class -II the seniority in in Category 1 of Class II shall be fixed fro the officers who were promoted from different feeder categories, on the basis of their length of service in their respective feeder categories.

NOTE 6 : For the purpose of promotion of category 1 of Class II, the following 12 point cycle shall be followed from the feeder categories :
