ABSTRACT

National Cadet Corps: Establishment - Upgrading of (2) posts of Superintendent in A.C. National Cadet Corps Group Headquarters, and 1 post as Establishment Officer, posts (Gazetted) - Issued.

Read the following:

ORDER

The Deputy Director General, National Cadet Corps, has reported that the National Cadet Corps Organisation started functioning independently with separate Director as Head of the Department from 1st January, 1993. In the organisation, the activities are being carried out by Defence Service Personnel of Central Government and Civilian personnel of Central and State Governments. There are 6 National Cadet Corps Group Headquarters (Regional Offices) in the States located at Vellore, Moolapet, Tirupati, Warangal and Hyderabad which are directly under administrative control of the Directorates. Each N.C.C. Group Headquarters is having nearly 10 to 13 N.C.C. units under its administrative control. All these N.C.C. units including N.C.C. Group Headquarters and the Directorates are being run by the Defence Service Officers, and it is also stated that as far as State Government is concerned, these Defence Service Officers are the Heads of the Offices, and they are vested with powers of administration and accounts. The Group Commanders are charged with the powers like recruitment, transfers disciplinary cases of staff, etc., in the said offices.

2. The Deputy Director General, N.C.C. has reported that the Officers and staff are drafted from various services such as the Indian Army, Navy, Air Force and as will other Departments of Government of Andhra Pradesh and that the officers drafted from the Defence Service are on regular basis, normally for a period of 2 to 3 years only. On completion of their tenure, they will be repatriated to their Regiments. Since the Officers work on various bases, there is imperative need to guide them properly on matters relating to rules and procedure of State Government which are being followed in the offices. The Deputy Director General, N.C.C. has therefore requested the Government to upgrade (6) posts of Superintendent as Gazetted posts.
3. The Government have carefully examined the proposal of the Deputy Director General, N.C.O., and decided to upgrade 2 posts of Superintendents viz., N.C.O., Group Headquarters located at Tamilnadu and Secunderabad to that of Establishment Officers. They accordingly direct that the two permanent posts of Superintendents viz., N.C.O., Group Headquarters located at Tamilnadu and Secunderabad sanctioned in E.O. 4.155/70, Education Department, dated 22.6.1971, shall be upgraded to that of Establishment Officer in the time scale of Rs.1010-70-2510-60-3250 with immediate effect.

4. The additional expenditure involved on the upgradation of the posts shall be met from the normal budget provision of the department.

5. The Government also direct that the incumbents on the posts of Establishment Officer designated shall be entrusted with the following functions:

a) he will be appointing authority in respect of Last Grade Employees working in the N.C.O. Group Headquarters and Units under its control;

b) he will be the discharging the discharging officers in respect of N.C.O. Group Headquarters for the funds provided by the State Government;

c) for controlling the budget in respect of the Group Headquarters and the 33 units under its control;

d) for advising Group Commanders in dealing with the service matters and disciplinary cases in respect of the civilian staff except Last Grade Employees and the administrative control of Group Headquarters;

e) for settling the audit objections of the Group Headquarters and the units and its control;

f) for advising the Group Commanders on matters pertaining to Finance, Accounts, Camps, and audit etc.,

g) for assisting the Group Commanders in maintaining the accounts wherever camps are conducted under the Group jurisdiction.

This order issues with the concurrence of Finance and Planning Department, vide their J.O. No.32-07-089/545/A1/PSI/92, dated 1.2.1992.
